

Vietnamese verbs are action words that describe what the subject does, similar to verbs in English. However, unlike English, Vietnamese verbs do not change form based on tense, person, or number.

Basic Vietnamese Verbs

Some common Vietnamese verbs include:

- ăn (eat)
- đi (go)
- học (learn)
- ngủ (sleep)
- nói (speak)

Example sentences:

- Tôi ăn cơm (I eat rice)
- Tôi đi ngủ (I go to sleep)